

Key		Plenary	Individual talk	Symposium
-----	--	---------	-----------------	-----------

ISCHP2021 Guelph Santiago Hub Programme

(Programme is scheduled in GMT/UTC-4) - As at 18 August 2021

MONDAY 23RD AUGUST 2021

GMT/ UTC -4	NZ Time
09:00 09:15	01:00 01:15		Guelph/Santiago: Morning Coffee + Welcome Address	Zoom
09:15 10:15	01:15 02:15	Keynote Address 1	Collective Viewing: Prof Bev Lawton: "Black/Brown lives do matter: Research addressing change"	Zoom
10:15 10:30	02:15 02:30	Own time	Guelph/Santiago: Morning Tea break Day 1
10:30 11:30	02:30 03:30	Live hub discussions by theme	Guelph/Santiago S1: Perceptions of Health Live Discussion Chair: Isi Paiva Mack	Zoom
		Pre-watch recordings or just come along to join the conversations with the presenters	55. Constructing a cycle of confusion: A critical discourse analysis of popular North American health magazines (Mikaela Beijbom) 12. Are digital health technologies actually improving our health? Exploring FemTech and menstrual self-tracking apps (Alexis Fabricius) 121. Autism intervention research in Ontario, Canada: A critical discourse analytic study (Anastasia Bolgova) 78. Oh God! Correlations of religiosity and health perceptions (poster) (David Moore)
11:30 12:30	03:30 04:30	Own time	Guelph/Santiago: Lunch + Connect with London Hub Day 1	Platform / Zoom
12:30 13:30	04:30 05:30	Live hub discussions by theme	Guelph/Santiago S2: Interacting with Healthcare Live Discussion Chair: Alexis Fabricius	Zoom
		Pre-watch recordings or just come along to join the conversations	29. Effects of hospital clown in a palliative care unit in Chile according to critical theory and critical discourse analysis (Victoria Valdebenito) 49. Negotiations of bicultural discourse: A cultural audit of New Zealand's mental health system (Lorien Jordan) 17. Social justice, quality of life and medical management of May-Thurner Syndrome (Miriam Osungwu)

		with the presenters	132. Unique psychosocial needs of distinct cancer patient populations: Revamping supportive needs surveys and practices of the 21st Century (Pecha Kucha) (Yasmina Mashmoushi)
13:30 13:45	05:30 05:45	Own time	Guelph/Santiago: Midday Tea Break Day 1
13:45 14:45	05:45 06:45	Live hub discussions by theme	Guelph/Santiago S3: Factors Mediating Health Live Discussion Chair: Mikaela Beijbom	Zoom
		Pre-watch recordings or just come along to join the conversations with the presenters	13. Bridging intimate partner violence against women and biomedicine (Tanja Samardzic) 102. Seeing what was there all along: Cognitive debriefing as a critical survey practice (Harley Dutcher) 74. An examination of the impact of protective factors on the mitigation of health-risk behaviors associated with adverse childhood experiences (Pecha Kucha) (Hannah Moore)
14:45 15:00	06:45 07:00	Own time	Guelph/Santiago: Afternoon Tea Break Day 1
15:00 16:00	07:00 08:00		Guelph/Santiago: 5 Minute Challenges: Presenters Chair: Aly Bailey Alexis Fabricius - AI is a critical health psych issue Tanja Samardzic - Polycystic Ovary Syndrome (PCOS):...Now What? Isidora Paiva- Trans people: The importance of the deconstruction of health professionals Victoria Valdebenito - Power analysis and social commitment in psychological research	Zoom
16:00 16:15	08:00 08:15	Own time	Guelph/Santiago: Late Afternoon Tea Break Day 1
16:15 16:45	08:15 08:45		Guelph/Santiago: Connect with Pōneke Wellington + Meanjin/Brisbane Hubs	Zoom/ Platform
16:45 17:00	08:45 09:00	Hub Closing	Guelph/Santiago: Closing Address	Zoom

Please refer to the revised Pōneke Wellington Hub Programme for any other sessions you'd like to watch

from Monday the 23rd August – Wednesday the 25th August