

Key		Plenary		Individual talk		Symposium
-----	--	---------	--	-----------------	--	-----------

ISCHP2021 London Hub Programme

(Programme is scheduled in BST) – As at 22 August 2021

MONDAY 23RD AUGUST 2021

BST	NZ Time
08:30 09:00	19:30 20:00		Registration/help desk open	MS Teams
09:00 09:15	20:00 20:15		Welcome address	MS Teams
09:15 10:15	20:15 21:15	Keynote Address 1	Collective viewing: ISCHP Keynote Address by Prof Bev Lawton "Black/Brown Lives Do Matter: Research addressing change"	Recording streamed - MS Teams
10:15 10:45	21:15 21:45	Own time	London: Morning Tea Break Day 1
10:45 11:45	21:45 22:45	Live hub discussions by theme	London S1.1: Global perspectives of COVID-19 Live Discussion Chair: Kristin Hanson	MS Teams
		Pre-watch recordings or just come along to join the conversations with the presenters	129. Citizens of two pandemics: People living with HIV and COVID in the UK (Corinne Squire) 11. Efficacy and Identity: COVID-19 perspectives of Middle-Class South Asians living in the UK (Kristin Hanson , Emma O'Dwyer, Sharmistha Chaudhuri, Luiz Gustavo Silva Souza, Tushna Vandrevale) 31. How ethnic minority groups experience COVID-19: The relationship between perceptions of (in)justice and willingness to engage in health protective behaviours (Lailah Alidu , Tushna Vandrevale, Jane Hendy) 39. Vaccines and conspiracy theories: Reflecting on the historical roots of vaccine hesitancy in South Africa (Janice K Moodley)
11:45 14:00	22.45 01:00	Own time	London: Lunch Day 1

14:00 15:00	01:00 02:00	Live hub discussions by theme	London S2.1: Explorations in Critical Health Psychology Research Live Discussion Chair: Craig Owen 26. Rethinking stigma as a technique of power: Lessons from critical research on abortion (Ulandi Du Plessis, Pedro Pinto, Catriona Macleod) 8. Beyond the traditional illness narrative: Multi-modal social media case studies of men's Inflammatory Bowel Disease experience (Lucy Prodggers, Brendan Gough, Anna Madill) 79. Allow me to explain why the way in which we conceptualise borderline personality disorder is wrong (Melissa Wright-Bevans) 16. Understanding and addressing stigma through qualitative research: Four reasons why we need qualitative studies (Sarah Stutterheim, Sarah Ratcliffe) 47. Using member checking within a critical health psychology research: Experience and reflections (Claudia Véron, Marie Santiago-Delefosse)	London S2.2: Practices and pathways of sexuality, reproduction and parenting (Part 2) Live Discussion Chair: Abigail Locke 120. Unborn, inter-connected personhood(s) and ambiguous reproductive pathways (Nicole Daniels) 128. "Is there ever a right time?": a qualitative study on the perceptions of reproductive timing in British South Asian communities (Sasha Loyal) 122. Inserting reparative justice into health systems analyses: A case study of unsafe abortion in Lesotho (Catriona Macleod, John Reynolds) 143. Constructions of masculinities and femininities amongst students in South Africa (Mary Van der Riet, Tembeka Mhlakwaphalwa, Austin Mvelas) 43. Teachable moments, critical health psychology and parenting cultures (Abigail Locke) 144. Troubling the constructions of gender and sexuality in the 'Auntie Stella: Teenagers talk about sex, life and relationships' education materials (Chantelle Malan, Mary Van der Riet) 10. How youth, caregivers and educators draw on sexual scripts to make sense of young people's engagement with Internet pornography (Siobhan Healy-Cullen, Tracy Morison, Kirsty Ross, Joanne E. Taylor)	MS Teams
15:00 15:30	02:00 02:30		London: Mindfulness Chillout Session 1 Taslim Tharani, coaching psychologist, mindfulness and ACT practitioner		MS Teams
15:30 16:30	02:30 03:30	Live hub discussions by theme	London S3.1: Through Our Eyes Live Discussion Chair: Craig Owen	London S3.2: Going through the motions? Negotiating health services Live Discussion Chair: Abigail Locke	MS Teams

		Pre-watch recordings or just come along to join the conversations with the presenters	112. "Through the eyes of the marginalised": "Failing" cultural virginity testing (Janice Moodley, Zamangcolwane Mzobe) 53. Lived experience and family impact of polyhandicap: Preliminary results of interviews with parents (Marie-Anastasie Aim, Ilyes Hamouda, Any Alejandra Beltran Anzola, Marie-Christine Rousseau, Karine Baumstarck, Lionel Dany) 24. Picturing equality: A critical qualitative challenge to the inequalities faced by non-normative gender identities in the UK (Annabel Roberts) 32. Broad lessons from a realist review of psychosocial interventions to improve the mental health of female IPV survivors (Sharli Paphitis, Abigail Bentley, Laura Asher, David Osrin, Sian Oram) 18. Self and identity in people living with dementia: A conversation analytic perspective (Felicity Slocombe, Elizabeth Peel) 131. B-MET, Being met well and the embodied evaluation of services from survivor perspectives (Jacqui Lovell, Jacqui Ackhurst) 48. Resilience for recovery from substance abuse among young people in Assam, India: Lived experience insights from a photovoice study (Rebecca Graber, Raginie Duara, Sangeeta Goswami, Siobhan Hugh-Jones, Anna Madill)	42. The rhetoric of compliance within an antenatal consultation (Tracey Feltham-King, Catriona Macleod) 152. Clashing orientations: Reflections on disparate goals in a research-NGO partnership aimed at reducing FASD in a region of South Africa (Nicola Jearey-Graham, Catriona Macleod) 127. "It's kind of a rubber-stamping exercise": a qualitative study on experiences of counselling for egg providers in UK fertility clinics (Sasha Loyal, Lorraine Culley, Nicky Hudson, Christina Weis) 70. Care pathways of excised women living in Switzerland (Poster) (Yasmina Lotfi, Maria del Rio Carral) 75. Dis-comforting experiences: Dialogues from South West England confronting clinical realities (Rebecca Woods) 19. Cultural scripts of gender and suicide: An analysis on Italian newspapers (Lorenza Entilli, Ilaria Cerbo, Silvia Sara Canetto, Sabrina Cipolletta)
16:45 17:00	03:45 04:00		London: Thank you and closing address for the day		MS Teams

TUESDAY 24th AUGUST 2021

GMT/ UTC-1	NZ Time
08:30 09:30	19:30 20:30		AGM (8:30 AM in the UK; 9:30 AM in Europe and South Africa)
				Zoom

09:30 10:30	20:30 21:30	Keynote Address 2	Collective viewing: Keynote address by Dr Jade LeGrice "Māori women's rangatiratanga (Self-Determination) in critical health psychology: Merging intellectual, intuitive & collaborative lines of inquiry"	Recording streamed – MS Teams
10:30 11:00	21:30 22:00	Own time	London: Morning Tea Break Day 2
11:00 12:00	22:00 23:00	Live hub discussions by theme	London S4.1: Climate emotions – Psychiatrisation and social (dis)engagement (Symposium) Live Discussion Chair: Weronika Katwak	MS Teams
		Pre-watch recordings or just come along to join the conversations with the presenters	125. "Is climate depression just(ified) or unjust?" Critical discourse analysis of media and social media representations of climate crisis (Weronika Katwak , Zuzanna Garncarek, Krzysztof Hankus) 124. How do they keep going? Experience and motivation of long-term commitment in climate activism (Anna Wojewoda) 76. Relationality as a framework for emotional well-being in the face of climate change (Vanessa Weihgold) 126. "You all come to us, young people, for hope" – critical discourse analysis of children responsibility for climate action (Poster) (Zuzanna Garncarek , Krzysztof Hankus, Weronika Katwak, Marta Pawlikowska, Helena Walasz)
12:00 13:00	23:00 00:00	Own time	London: Lunch Day 2
13:00 14:00	00:00 01:00	Live hub discussions by theme	London S5.1: Contemporary performances of health Live Discussion Chair: Maria Del Rio Carral, Federica Cavazzoni, Angela Kumah	MS Teams
			38. 'I wanted to share with you some of my healthy habits': YouTubers' staging of health-related practices (Maria Del Rio Carral , Lucia Volpato, Chloé Michoud) 52. Corporeal and intersubjective lived experience of persons living with type 1 diabetes in the eHealth era (Sébastien Miserez , Marie Santiago-Delefosse) 34. Appreciative inquiry – A tool for mental health promotion among Black and Afro Caribbean people in the UK (Poster) (Angela Kumah) 25. From stones to flowers: Exploring risk and protective factors in Palestinian children's everyday life with individual narrative time-lines (Federica Cavazzoni , Sabrina Russo, Haneen Ayoub, Guido Veronese)
14:00 15:00	01:00 02:00		London: Mentoring session (registration necessary) Sarah Stutterheim, Associate Professor at the Department of Work and Social Psychology, Maastricht University	MS Teams
15:00 15:30	02:00 02:30		London: Mindfulness Chillout Session 2 Taslim Tharani, coaching psychologist, mindfulness and ACT practitioner	MS Teams
15:30 16:00	02:30 03:00	Hub Closing	London: Closing address and awards	MS Teams

Please also refer to the conference platform for additional talks and symposia across our virtual hubs